

Project Inception

Initial conversation about a Children’s Museum in Loveland. Multiple community conversations stakeholders meetings.

Community Conversations

Renewed vision for stand-alone children’s museum, continued conversations in the community.

First Interactivity

Ryan and Summer attend Interactivity 2017 in Pasadena. Vision for the museum becomes regional.

Market Study + 501(c)3

Market study/business plan contract award to Lord Cultural Resources. 501(c)3 received in Dec. 2017.

Board Expansion

Four new board members sat. First iteration of a broader regional board.

Philanthropic Study

Ryan attends Interactivity Conference. Philanthropic Feasibility study conducted by The Kellogg Group. Major stakeholders meeting in Oct 2019.

The Path to Campaign Ready

The Board sets the goal of being “Campaign Ready” by in 2021. The site is identified, and Oz Architecture chosen for initial designs.

The Path to Campaign Ready

Initial designs are completed, and The Board continues its preparation for our capital campaign.